

Using only the title draw what you think the poem might be about. Then read the poem and use the details to make pictures in your head.

Draw what you imagine and add labels.

Before reading I imagined . . .

After reading I imagined . . .

