

Great readers make connections to things they know about. Read a story and show your connections below.

A connection to something that has happened to me:

---

---

---

---

---

A connection to something I have seen on television, in a movie or in a book:

---

---

---

---

---

A connection to something I know is happening to others:

---

---

---

---

---