

Learning Intention

I am learning about the characters, or stars of a story and why they are important.

Success Criteria

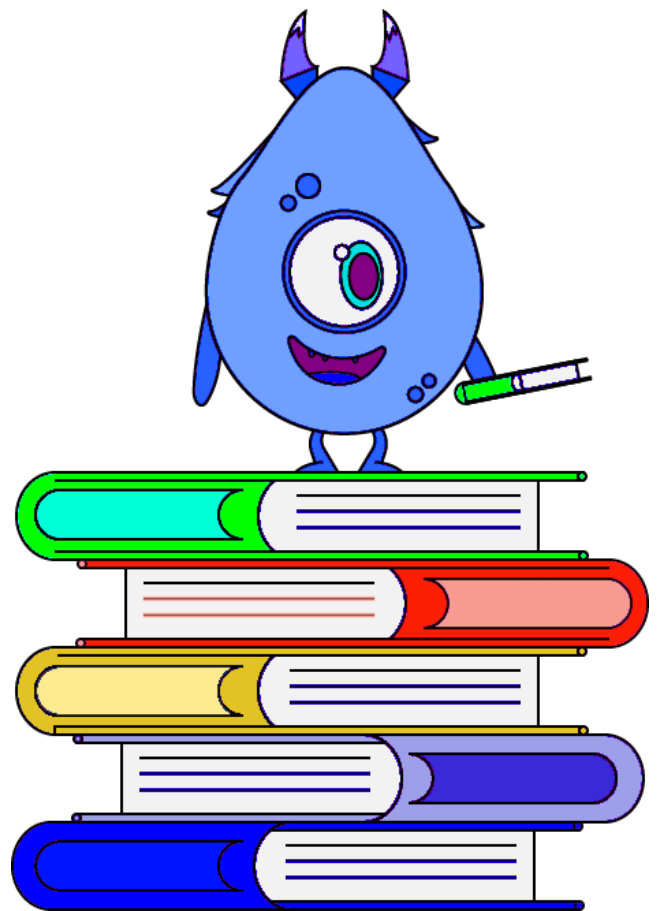

I will think of words that describe, or tell about, how the characters act. I will use these words to think about other things they might do.

Characters

The characters are the stars of the story. There are lots of different kinds of characters. Readers usually like some characters and dislike others.

Great readers notice what the characters say and how they act. This helps them to know what kind of character they are.

Learning Checklist

Check these off as you go.

Tell a friend as much as you know about each character.

Talk about:	✓
Character 1: _____
