

Success Criteria

I will listen for groups of words that sound unusual together and groups of words I have not heard before. I will talk about what is happening in the story and infer what I think the words might mean.

