

Visualising

Visualising is what great readers do to imagine how things look, sound, feel, taste and smell. They even use their emotions to imagine other feelings like happy, sad, excited, or feeling cold. When readers visualise they imagine actually being there.

