Visualising

Visualising is what great readers do to imagine how things look, sound, feel, taste and smell. They even use their emotions to imagine other feelings like happy, sad, excited, or feeling cold.

feeling cold.
When readers
visualise they

imagine

actually

being there.