

Questions

A question is what someone asks if they do not know something.

Great readers will find the answers to some questions by searching the words and pictures with their eyes.

