

Theme

The theme of a story is its main message or central idea. The theme is woven all through the story. Look at how characters act, react to things happening and interact with others. To work out the theme, ask, “What message is the author sending through these characters and events?” “What message is at the heart of this story?”

