Mood

The mood is the atmosphere, or tone. Authors creates the mood by choosing words or pictures which give us a feeling, like being excited about a ride or creeped out by a dark place. The way something is described creates the mood. Adjectives are important when creating the mood. To work out the mood, ask, "How does this make me feel?"