

Toby's Beach Visit

Toby forgot his sunhat, sunscreen and swim shirt. Never mind! Toby didn't care. If he got hot, he'd just go in the water.

Toby could see the safety flags up the beach, but it was too far. He decided to swim where he was.

Toby wasn't a strong swimmer, but he wanted to go into the deep water.

Toby wanted to play in the sand, so he raced off quickly leaving his floaty ring down near the water.
